Memo to: Editor, Tumbleweed Times
From: Timothy L. Coggins
Publicity and Public Relations Committee
Southeastern Chapter
Subject: SEAALL BREAKFAST AT AALL
Date: May 30, 1989

Would you please include the following information in the first issue of The Tumbleweed Times?

"The Southeastern Chapter will hold its breakfast business meeting on Monday, June 19 from 7:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. Chapter President Mary Foreman encourages chapter members to attend and enjoy a full breakfast menu of orange juice, scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, hash browns, and more. The cost is $6.00 per person. Check the program schedule for the room location."

The following can be included in any early issue you prefer.

"The Southeastern Chapter exhibit in the AALL Special Activities area includes some interesting photographs of the chapter's recent annual meeting. As many of you may know, the Chapter's April meeting was held on the Dolphin cruise ship en route from Miami to Nassau in the Bahamas. Check out the exhibit to see pictures of chapter members and guests, including Babe Russo dancing with the Captain! Other pictures show the island of Blue Lagoon, street scenes in Nassau, and much more. At the meeting SEAALL member Edmund Edmonds was presented the first annual Service to the Chapter award."

Thank you.
